WINTER/SPRING 2005 MAILORDER CATALOG

"If ever someone had distilled the essence of summer and pressed it on to a slab of vinyl, this is it. Top class summer pop, for these cold winter nights."

"The Pathways - who restore my faith in pop - are reminiscent of the Go-Betweens in their heyday (double vocals, off-kilter arrangements) but with a more inventive drummer. Whoever signs this band should get a medal."

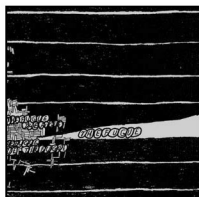

- Village Voice

THE PATHWAYS Productivity 7"

"The Wowz are doing The Beatles doing modern rock on the street. There's a slight Camper Van Beethoven bent to the proceedings as well, which never hurts, especially when you can pull it off... Long Grain Rights is a lot of fun and a definite keeper."
